Also, your partner for provisioning Microsoft productivity solutions.

The acquisition of AppRiver means we're now standing by to become your preferred partner for licensing the world's most trusted productivity tools: Microsoft Office 365. We can help you navigate Microsoft's New Commerce Experience (NCE) and show you how it can mean:

Greater sales agility and customer commitment

Operational efficiency

And more choices for your customers

Our extensive portfolio, offered from a single vendor, helps customers and partners to:

Focus on profitability

Reduce risks

Be resilient against attacks
